

TRACK SATS PRIVACY POLICY

TRACK SATS IS SENSITIVE TO CONCERNS ABOUT USER PRIVACY, AND AS SUCH, WE TAKE PRIVACY SERIOUSLY. LISTED BELOW IS INFORMATION TRACK SATS COLLECTS AND TRANSMITS IN ORDER TO FUNCTION. AMONG WHAT WE COLLECT, WE HAVE ALSO PROVIDED INFORMATION AS TO HOW IT IS USED.

WHAT DO WE COLLECT AND HOW IS IT USED?

Traffic data. When a request is sent to our servers, information such as IP address and access date are automatically logged by our web server (a standard across the industry). This data cannot identify you personally and includes, but is not limited to: IP address, timestamp, request type, requested resource, request metadata and browser metadata. This data may be used to analyze usage of our services. As an example, this data may be used to diagnose problems with serving content to end users, but is not limited to this use case.

Your location. When provided, your location (latitude, longitude and altitude) is transmitted to our servers to provide you with valuable information such as the selected satellite's azimuth and elevation relative to your location, and to predict future passes. Your location data is temporarily stored on the server for as long as it is needed to calculate the requested information. This data does not provide any personally identifiable information along with it. Once you exit the app, your location data will be erased from the server indefinitely. Your location information is not used for any other purpose than noted above.

HOW SECURE IS YOUR DATA?

Track Sats strives to protect our user's data and in doing so implements measures to protect against breaches, including firewalls and strengthened authentication measures. Our server host is managed by Amazon Web Services who continuously protect against data breaches at the data center level. Unfortunately, no currently available technique for data transmission can be guaranteed to be 100% secure and as such, we cannot guarantee the security of any information sent to or from our servers. Accordingly, Track Sats disclaims liability for any theft, loss, or interception of or any unauthorized access or damage to any data or communications. By using our services, you acknowledge that you understand and agree to assume these risks.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy may be updated from time to time. Due to this, we advise you to review this page periodically for any changes. You will be notified of any changes via Track Sats posting the changes on this page. These changes will be effective immediately, after being posted on this page.
